409 Oak Street is located on a 25' x 80' lot on the south side of Oak Street between Laguna and Buchanan Streets. Built in 1941, 409 Oak Street is a 2-story, wood-frame, single-family house designed in the Mediterranean Revival style. The rectangular-plan building, clad in smooth stucco and drop wood siding, is capped by a flat roof. The foundation is not visible from the street. The primary façade faces north and is 2 bays wide. The left bay of the first floor features a garage, while the right bay features a gated, recessed entrance porch sheltering a wooden door with sidelights. The left bay of the second floor projects slightly from the wall plane and features paired, horizontally-divided, 2-over-2, double-hung, wood-sash windows with rough plank wood shutters. The right bay features 3 contiguous windows with the same sash. The primary façade terminates in a plain roofline. Secondary elevations are clad in drop wood siding. A metal vent pipe chimney is set near the façade on the west side of the building.

The building appears to be in good condition.
