*P3a. Description: (Describe resource and its major elements. Include design, materials, condition, alterations, size, setting, and boundaries.)

555 Fell Street. is located on a 19.75' x 120' lot on the south side of Fell Street that runs the width of the block and continues to Hickory Street. The rear elevation features the backyard of subject property. Built ca. 1910, 555 Fell Street is a 3-story, wood frame, multiple family building designed in the Classical Revival style. The rectangular-plan building, clad in flush and drop wood siding, is capped by a parapeted gable roof. The primary façade faces north and is 2 bays wide. The ground story features wood stairs with turned wood balusters and newel posts with round finials in the left bay, and the right bay contains a bay window with double-hung, wood sash. The left bay of the first story contains a recessed entry porch with a portico composed of Ionic columns on bases and a hood with dentil cornice and hipped pent roof clad in shaped wood shingles. The porch shelters two entrances fitted with paneled wood doors with transoms. The right bay of the first and second stories contains a chamfered bay window. With double-hung, wood sash, spandrel panels, and entablatures with dentil cornices. A single double-hung, wood window with flattened pediment cap and dentil cornice is located in the left bay of the second story. The primary facade terminates in an entablature with dentil architrave and bracketed cornice. The roofline features a turned balustrade and centered arch with keystone. Side elevations are clad in drop wood siding. The building appears to be in good condition.
