Historic Preservation Commission Resolution # 645

HEARING DATE: MAY 5, 2010

ADOPTING FINDINGS HONORING ANGELA THREADGILL FOR HER CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SAN FRANCISCO HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION

WHEREAS, Angela Threadgill has served with distinction as a Historic Preservation Technical Specialist of the San Francisco Planning Department from November 17, 2007 to May 21, 2010; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill devoted much time and effort as a representative of the Planning Department for the protection and preservation of the City's historic resources; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill specifically as the representative of the Planning Department worked closely with all parties involved for the sensitive rehabilitation and adaptive re-use of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Building, designed by Timothy Pfleuger, and located at 140 New Montgomery; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill consistently provided thoughtful, professional advice and guidance to the public, community groups, and City staff; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill not only raised the bar for the treatment of the City's historic resources but also raised the bar in the Planning Department office and City Hall through her impeccable dress and style; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill has earned the respect of the Historic Preservation Commission, the Planning Department, preservation and neighborhood groups, and members of the public through her dedication and expertise, as well as her poise and good humor; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Threadgill is an expert and strong advocate for the City's Modern and Recent Past historic resources; but

RECOGNIZING that while she, her husband John Theadgill, and Muenster the German Shorthair Pointer shall soon depart to Atlanta, Georgia, the imprint of Ms. Theadgill's commitment to San Francisco's historic built environment remains behind for us
