

APPLICATION TO JOIN THE COMMUNITY ADVISORY GROUP FOR THE COMMUNITY BENEFITS STUDY IN THE EASTERN NEIGHBORHOODS

The Community Benefits Study in the Eastern Neighborhoods is a study led by San Francisco Planning and conducted by consultants Van Meter Williams Pollack and Keyser Marston.

This study will evaluate higher heights and additional community benefits on up to ten specific sites located in the Eastern Neighborhoods area (the communities of the Mission District, South of Market, Central Waterfront, and Potrero Hill). The Community Advisory Group will provide input in this process including but not limited to:

- Helping in selection of sites to be studied,
- Evaluating community benefits to be incorporated in exchange for added heights,
- Reviewing consultant work and deliverables at different steps in the process.

The Group will meet approximately once a month for approximately six months, starting in August 2016.

The Group will consist of the following seats:

- Two residents of the Mission District and/or employees of a Mission based business;
- Two affordable housing or mixed use developers, preferably with experience working in the Eastern Neighborhoods; and
- Two to three residents of the broader Eastern Neighborhoods.

This scope of this study may be expanded to a second phase, which will be determined in the following months in coordination with the Advisory Group.
